Ladies
Bible Study

When all seems lost, and your future seems to offer nothing but the rubble of ground zero, how do you go on?

Will anyone be there to take your hand and help you rebuild a life that can triumph over the tragedies, defeats and failures of the past?

Yes, Beloved, because God has given you a Kinsman Redeemer.

For those ladies who have never taken a Precept Upon Precept class before this 4 week class would be a perfect time to begin learning how to study inductively. Classes begin with orientation either on Wednesday, April 21 or Sunday, April 25.

Workbooks are $7.00

Childcare is available, please make sure you inform us of childcare needs when you sign up for the class.

Are looking for a place to get involved?

Call the office or speak to a staff member. There are numerous areas of service where you can invest and grow your spiritual gift.

There are several on-going and new ministries that need volunteers who are ready to step into service.

Start small and grow...

the important thing being...

Start.

MEN'S CONFERENCE – UPDATE –

FBC members! If you plan on attending the Men's Conference April 30-May 1, your name should already be on the list... and your check in by Sunday! This is the last week to sign up.

VBS 2010!
Live it out
June 20-23
Volunteers! VBS meeting on Wednesday, April 14th in the Adult 7! 5:45-6:15 pm

Come work with the kids! This is going to be a great VBS... just another place where you will have the opportunity to invest in the spiritual lives of the kids and their family (and quite possibly their eternal future!) Don't miss this opportunity to get involved. The curriculum, format and worship are going to be new and exciting. If you have questions, bring them... or call Bro Wes.

See you TOMORROW night at 5:45!

It won't take long to figure out, but just in case, you'll enjoy and gain encouragement from knowing...

Over the next few months our church facility will be used for a number of wedding related celebrations: everything from wedding showers, anniversaries, wedding, and receptions. This should give all of us cause to reflect upon the incredible responsibility and privilege as a church family to pray for those who are beginning a lifelong journey together as husband and wife while at the same time rejoicing with those who celebrate each year's anniversary as they remain steadfast in their wedding vows through good and bad. So as you walk through the halls of the church and fellowship with one another let me offer a few suggestions if you're wondering what to say:

- congratulate those who are getting married and offer a word of encouragement and challenge
- encourage husbands and wives to love one another and tell them you're glad to see them in church together
- ask an older couple who smiles and holds hands "how do you keep that spark?"... most should be ready to give a candid and wise answer
- commit to pray for those who are getting married
- challenge the husband to tell his wife "I love you"
- challenge the wife to tell her husband "I love you"
- encourage the children and teens to live pure lives so they will be able to offer themselves wholly and completely on their wedding day

Kids, Teens, Singles, those who are "looking" and those who are content..., you too know that today's society is indifferent toward a solid, lifetime, and happy marriage. God is not indifferent. He considers it holy and very special: we should too. Encourage one another and build each other up.

Have a Blessed Week!

Celebrate all the "little stuff" too
