

MAY 26, 2010

This week we celebrate in a different way through the reality that the Freedom we cherish is not free at all. There have been men and women through the years who never made it back from the battlefield; and there are families who have soldiers... fathers, mothers, sons and daughters who are absent. We have a nation that has seen the blessing and protection of the Lord... and we have also seen the tragedy of war. Pray for our nations families who have suffered such loss, and pray for those who remain in harms way.

Freedom has a cost. And you are provided the opportunity to celebrate that freedom in church each week as you worship the Risen Lord freely. Are you taking that opportunity to celebrate and live in the freedom of Christ?

Christ died so we may live forever

A soldier died so we may worship Christ in peace

Live it Out!
